

Cookie Jar Pattern

Cookie Patterns

Make several copies of these cookie patterns. Try one of these activities with your students!

Write scrambled spelling words, mixed-up sentences, or story starter ideas on either pattern. Store the cookies in a real cookie jar or empty cookie box.

Draw chocolate chips on the cookies with a brown crayon or marker and ask young children to count the chips. This makes a cute bulletin board idea where children can pin the correct answer next to the appropriate cookie.