

Ladybug and Flower Match!

Making several ladybugs and flowers from colored construction paper can easily make several matching activities.

For a math activity, label each flower with a problem and each ladybug with an appropriate answer. Long and short vowel sounds can easily be practiced with the same type of matching activity. Label each flower with a short or long vowel. Write words appropriate to the sounds on the flowers and have students match them to the correct ladybug.

