

Award Paper Topper

Here's a cute way to display students' work!

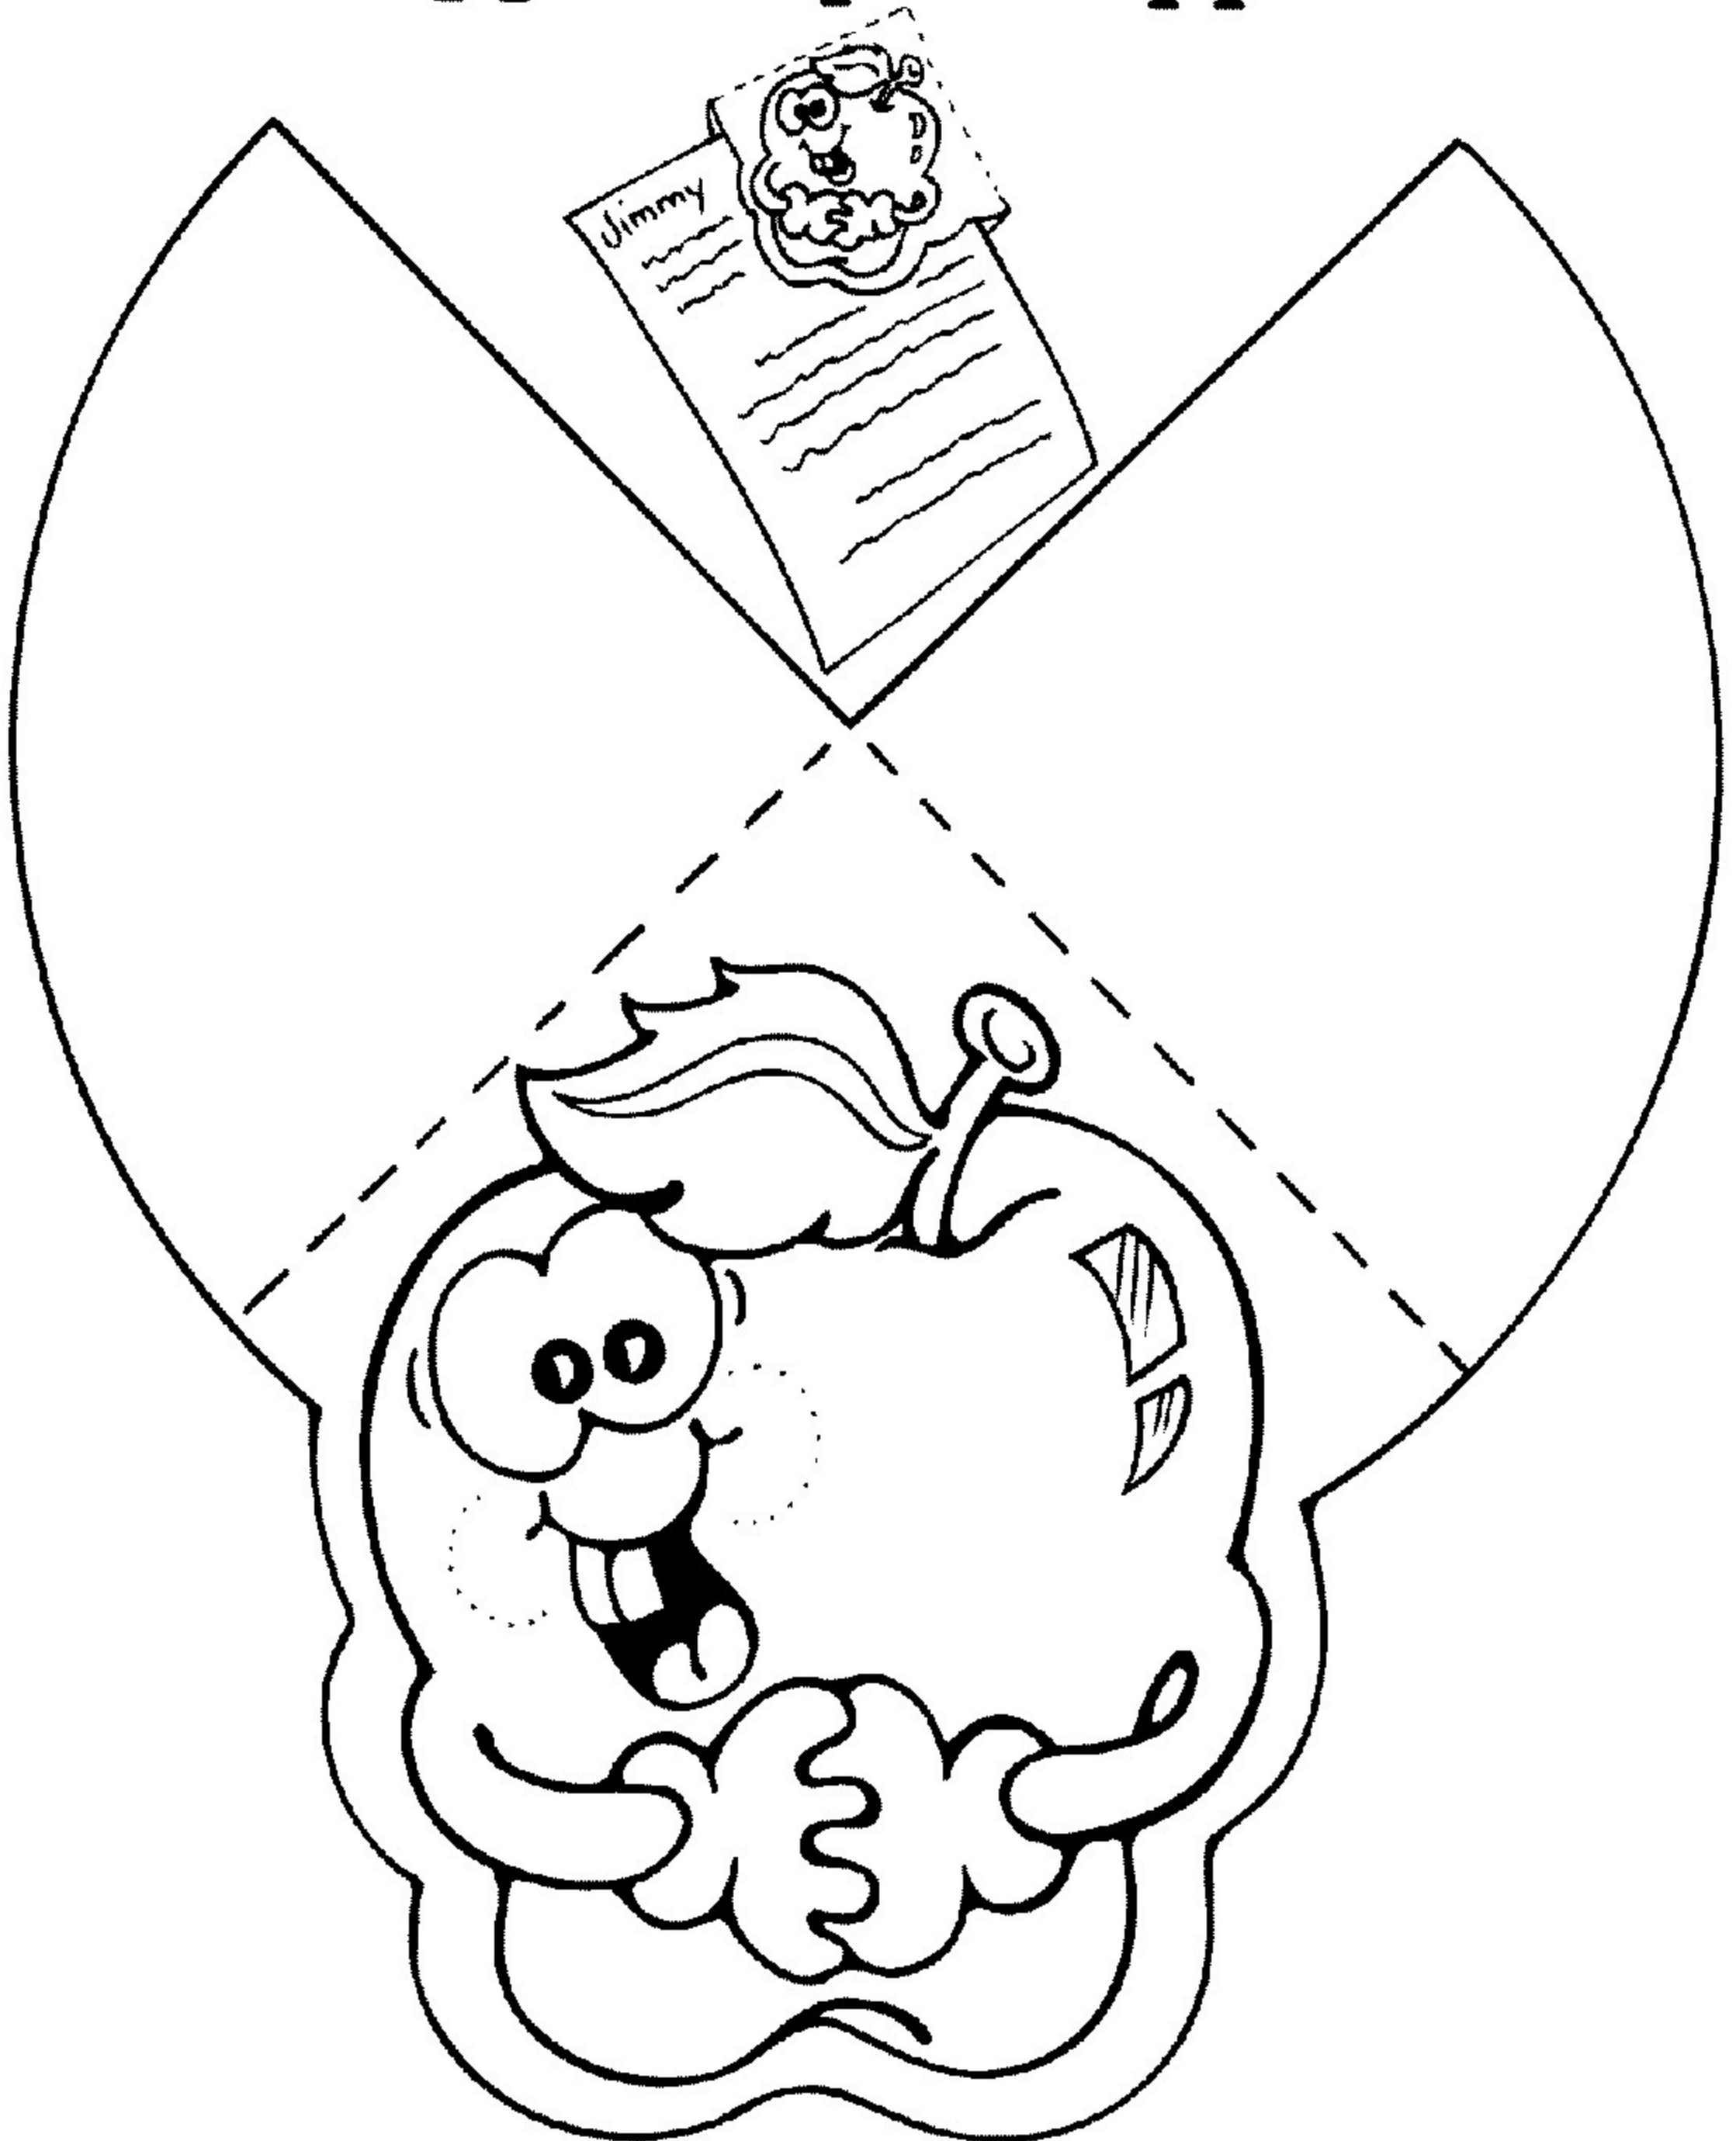

Cut these Paper Toppers from colored paper. Or, students can color them with crayons or markers.

Fold along the dotted lines, tape the back together and insert over the corner of a student's good work paper!

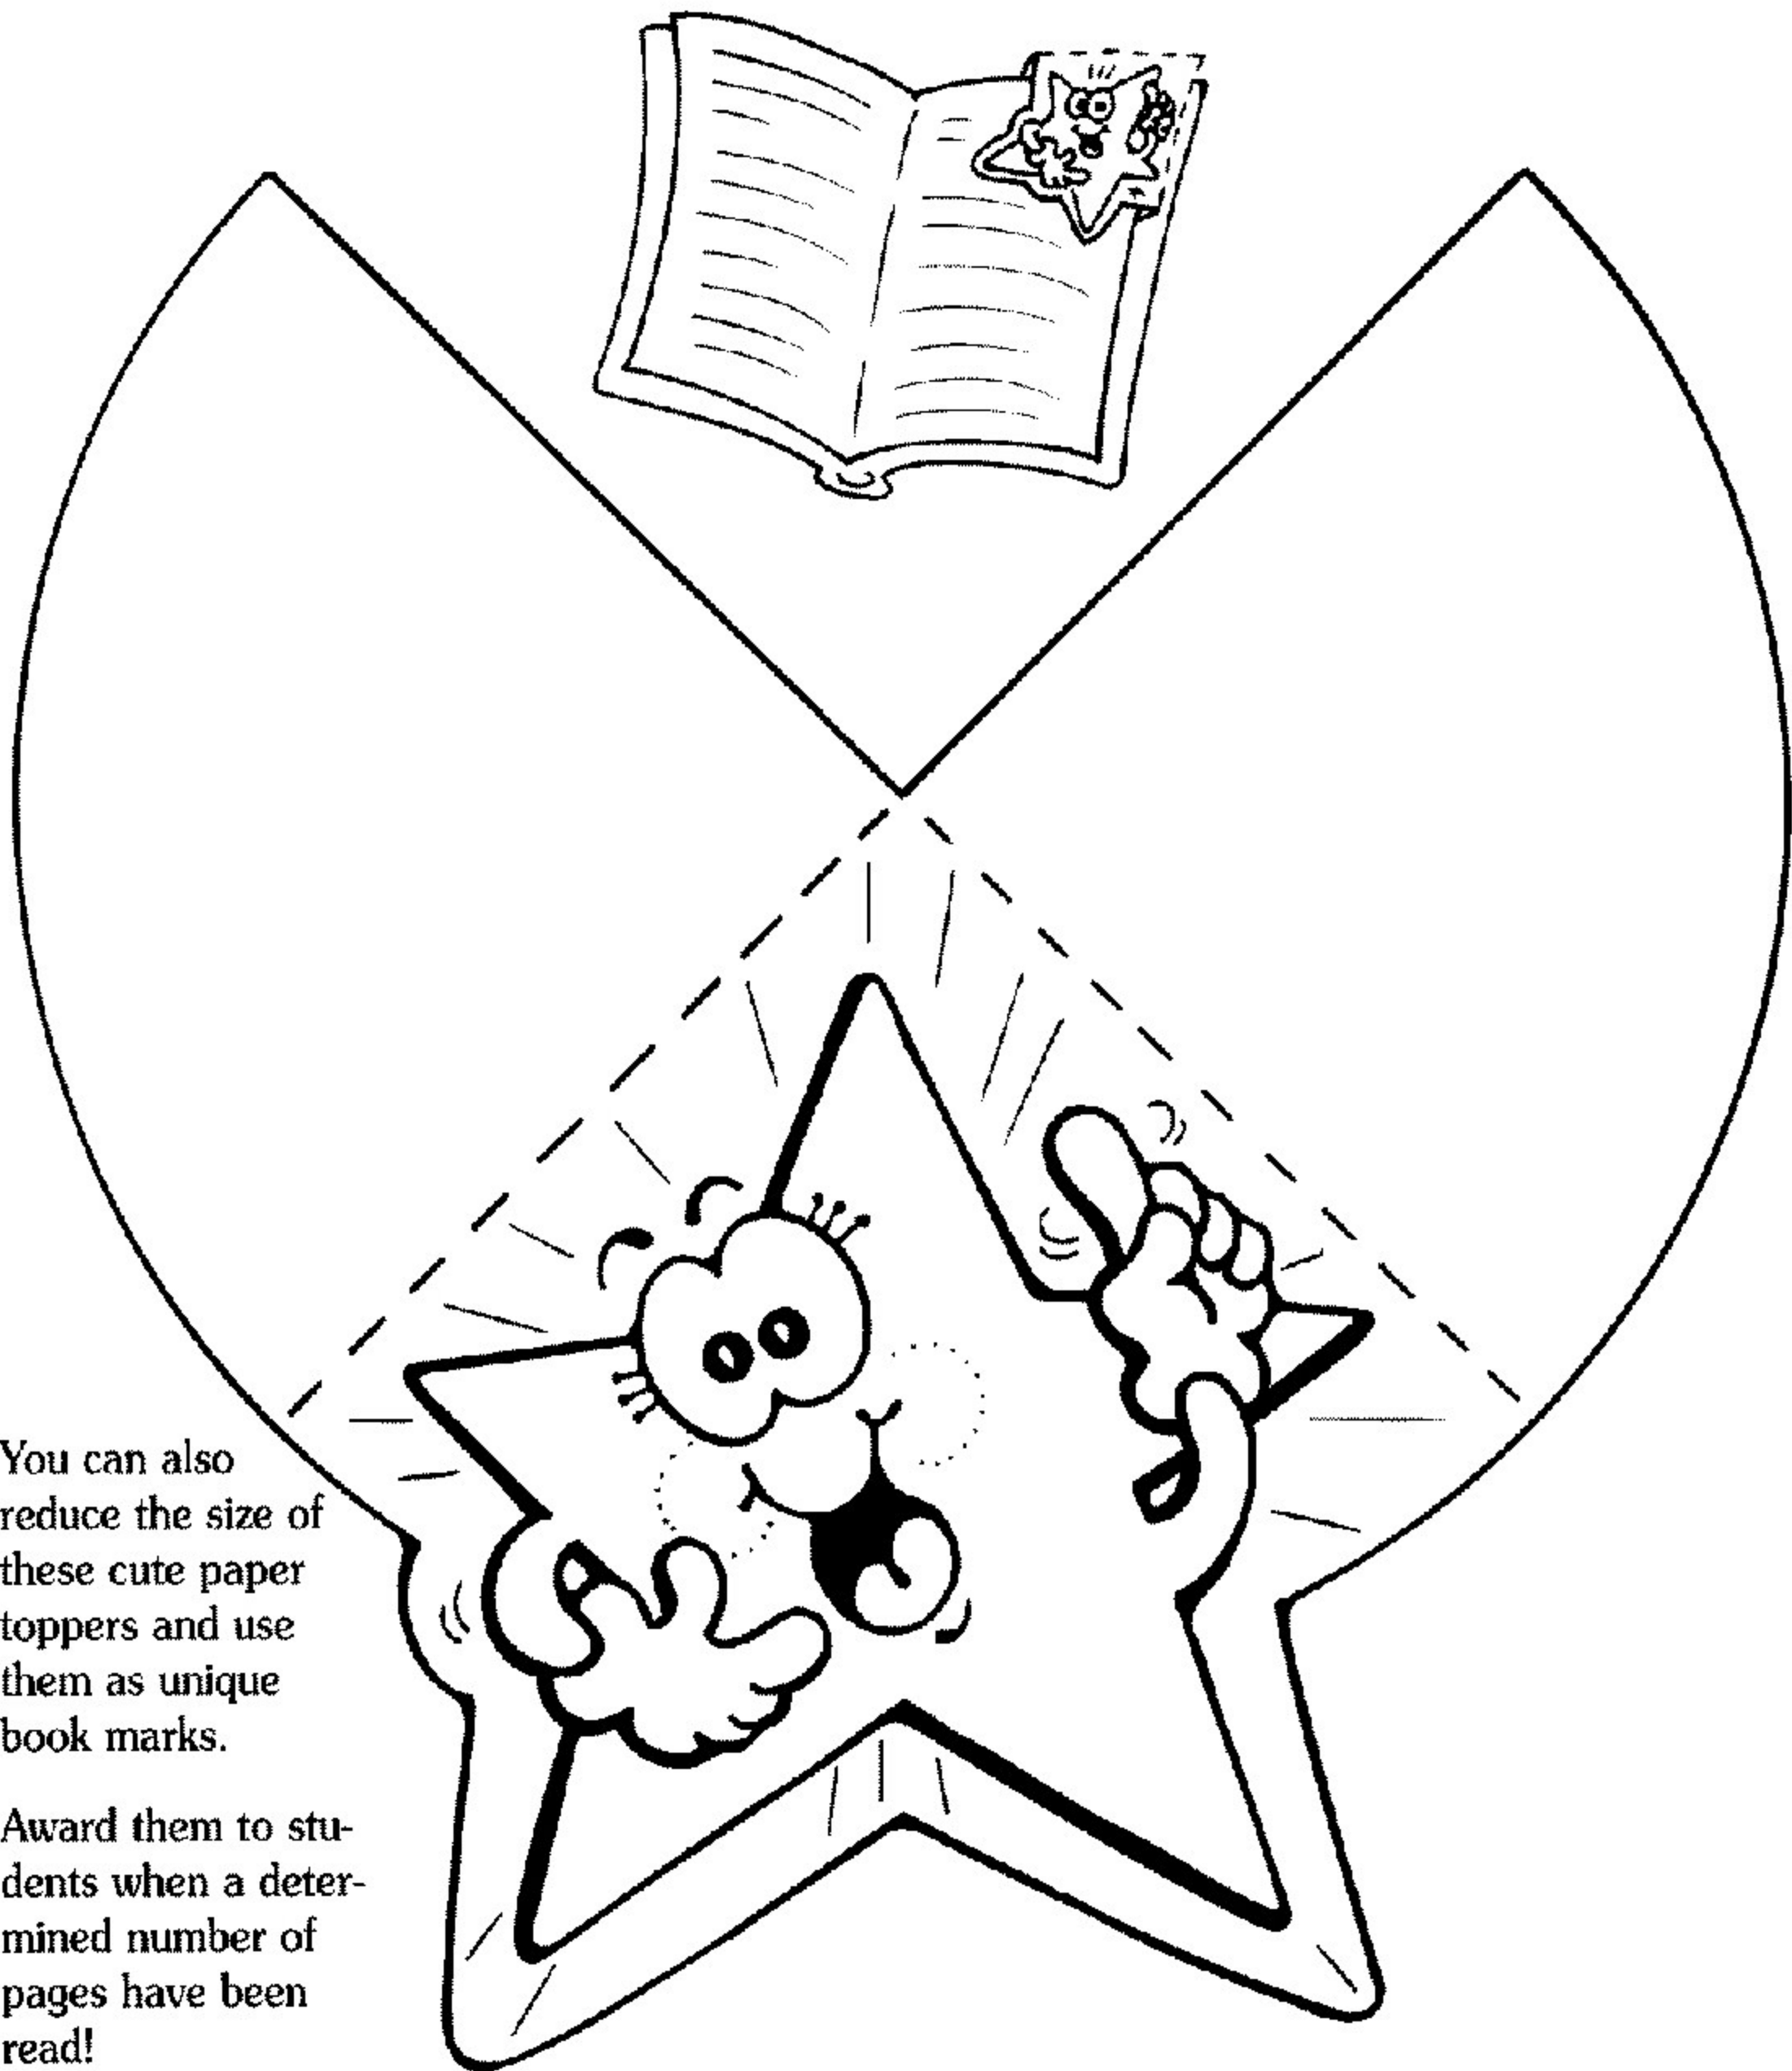

Display the papers with the toppers on the class board.

You can also reduce the size of these cute paper toppers and use them as unique book marks.

Award them to students when a determined number of pages have been read!
