

CORN ON THE COB

Let children help you shuck several ears of fresh corn. Cut the corn into smaller sections and place them in a large pot filled with cool water. Bring the pot to a boil and then turn off the heat. Allow the corn to cool some before serving it at snack time to the students.

