

PINWHEEL SANDWICHES

What a fun way to eat a sandwich!

Let the children cut the crusts off several slices of fresh bread. Instruct each student to roll his or her slice of bread flat with a rolling pin. The children can then spread peanut butter or a cheese spread on their flattened bread. Starting at one end, show the students how to roll up the bread. Slice the rolls to make pinwheels and arrange them on a paper plate.