

Letters to Grandparents!

The envelope template features a return address area on the left side with three horizontal lines. A rectangular box on the right side is designated for a postage stamp. The central message area contains three horizontal lines for writing. The envelope is designed with a top flap and a bottom flap, both indicated by dashed lines for cutting and folding.