

Match the Basket and Basketball

Cutting several baskets and basketballs from colored paper can make a variety of matching activities. Math facts can then be practiced by labeling each ball with a problem and a basket with the correct answer. Students solve the problem and match the two together.

