

Matching Heart Halves!

Several matching activities can be made by cutting hearts from colored paper. Math facts can be practiced by labeling one side of each heart with a math problem and the other side with the correct answer. Cut the hearts apart and ask students to match the halves together.

Other activities can include matching numbers, letters, short and long vowel sounds, homophones, etc.

