

Matching Mittens

Make several copies of these mittens from colored construction paper. Use them in a variety of matching activities such as letter recognition, math facts, opposites, words and definitions and so on.

Children can match the pairs and pin them to a clothesline in the classroom.

Creative writing ideas can also be written on the mittens.

