

Tangram

A Tangram is an ancient Chinese puzzle cut from a square piece of paper. It consists of five triangles, a parallelogram and a small square. These seven shapes can be combined to form many different shapes and designs.

Give each of your students a copy of the Tangram. Have them cut out the pieces and arrange them on a contrasting colored sheet of paper. Glue the shapes in place and display the best Tangrams on the class board.

