

SAFETY FIRST!

Telephone Number and Home Address

Copy the telephone and house patterns. Ask each child their phone number and address. The teacher writes them out on the telephone (phone number) and house (address) in front of the child, stating the numbers and letters (words) as they are written. Then the children decorate the patterns with crayons, markers or colored pencils.

